Talking About Your Home

Hello! I'm your language learning assistant. I'm here to help you practice your English. Let's start! I'm looking for a new flat to rent. I need something that's more spacious than my current place. What kind of flat are you living in right now?

I live in a nice flat, in the suburbs but close to the city. It is not as small as...

That sounds lovely. What do you like most about your flat? When you're looking for a new place to rent, what are the most important things for you to consider?

I love that the sun gets into my flat every day. It's a really nice place so bright that I don't need to...

That's great! Natural light can make a big difference. If you were looking for a new place, what would be the most important thing for you to look out for in a new flat? Would you prefer something smaller or would you like something different?

Today, you demonstrated a good effort in describing what you are looking for. You used some comparative phrases well, such as "more spacious" and "cheaper". You also did a good job of describing your current flat like "a balcony" and "a modern kitchen". To improve, try to use a wider range of comparative and superlative adjectives to compare different flats and their features. For example, instead of saying "big", you could say "spacious" or "large". Next time, try using a letting agent, or you could describe your ideal home in detail. Keep up the good work! You're making perfect!

Main features

Leon appears at the end of certain learning units (missions), selected based on two criteria:

- The learner has a sufficient level to write and maintain a conversation.
- The mission content lends itself to conversational exchange.

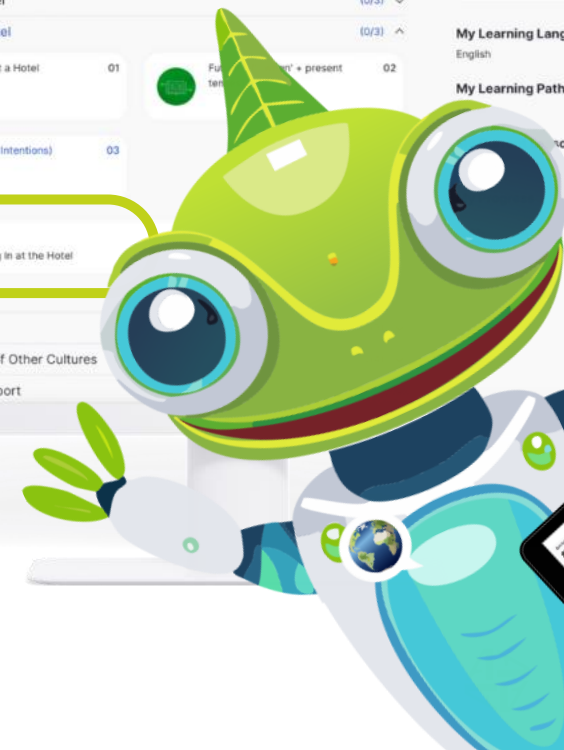

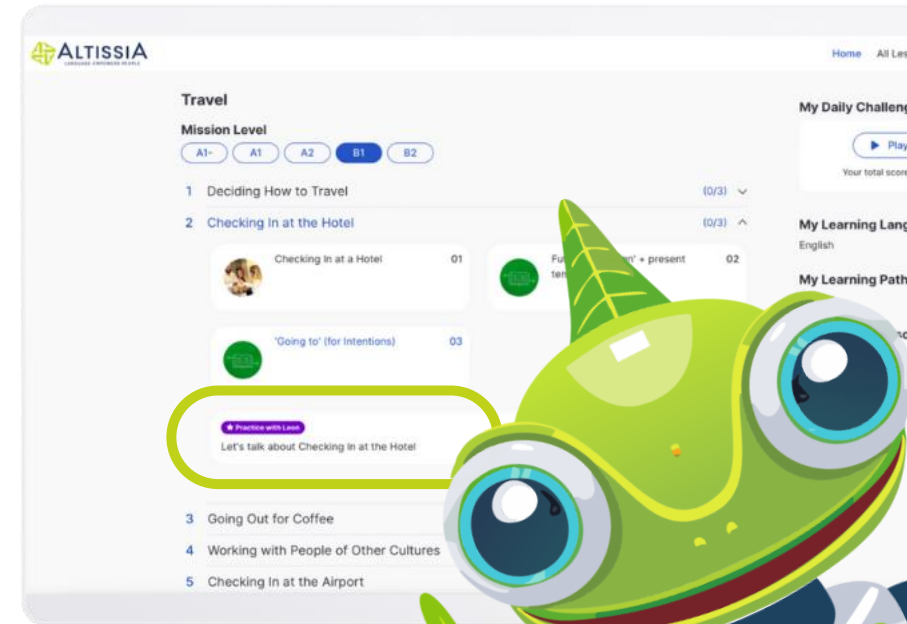

Leon asks questions, responds and goes deeper, and concludes the conversation with feedback and educational advice (maximum 40 interactions).

Available in English course.

Available on web and application.
